

CHILD PROTECTION POLICY

All regular staff possess enhanced DBS police checks.

Any visitors to the hall during class times are supervised at all times by staff members.

Due to the physical nature of dance, drama and singing it may on occasion be necessary to make physical contact with the children. To ensure correct alignment and posture, enabling movements to be performed correctly which reaffirms safety. This contact is kept to a minimum and only actioned when absolutely necessary. The child's permission will be asked before any contact is made.

Permission from parents will be gained before taking any photographs or videos of the children during class or performance. Parents must also ask Brownett School of Dance for permission before videoing any performances or taking photographs.

Any rules laid down by the place of hire are adhered to.
